The next item on the agenda is public comment. Cindy Robertson, West Verdine Street, had an ADA call-in regarding cooling stations in Sulphur during the hot months and asked if the city had an action plan.

Josh Baden, Alabama Street, showed concern regarding item #3 on the agenda regarding the Exception for Flamingo Investments, LLC, 1100 Lori Lane, to allow for living in a business district for mobile homes. He stated that if there was that much crime going on in this neighborhood, maybe it's a Police Department problem and not a property management problem.

Danny DiPetta, Bonin Drive, stated that it's been a pleasure working with the Council and he'll continue to build off what the Council has built.

Jonetta Bell, Loyola University, stated that she's working on Project Connect and she's learning how government functions. June 1st started her fellowship and she picked Sulphur for her project.

Les Farnum, Oakley Drive, thanked the Council and Mayor for their service. It's hard making tough decisions without even being thanked.

Mayor Danahay and all the Councilmen each spoke for their last Council meeting thanking everyone who supported them and all the city workers they've worked with all these years.

There being no further business to come before the Council, the Vice-Chairman declared the meeting adjourned.
